Magical Fireflies Tour

Highlights

- Leave the busy city behind for a chance to explore Kuala Lumpur's beautiful countryside
- Visit one of the largest firefly colonies in the world in the quaint town of Kampung Kuantan on a relaxing boat ride at the Kuala Selangor River
- Capture thousands of fireflies glowing in the dark in a rich mangrove ecosystem in the midst of the lush forest
- See the historical Fort Altingsburg dating back to the 18th century and used to defend the city against invaders
- Meet the silver leaf monkeys at Melawati Hill or Monkey Hill located near the Kuala Selangor Nature Park
- Score amazing photos with family and friends during the boat trip at the Kuala Selangor River
- Complete the day with a sumptuous dinner in a local seafood restaurant (Optional)
- Round-trip transfers from your KL hotel are provided

Explore:

Escape the hustle and bustle of Kuala Lumpur and head over the calmer and quieter hamlet town of Kuala Selangor. Your day starts with a visit to Kota Melawati, also known as Fort Altingsburg, built to defend the city against invasions all the way back in the 18th century. If you are lucky, catch a glimpse of the rare silvered leaf monkeys. The highlight of the trip is a boat trip along the banks of Kampung Kuantan where you can watch a stunning fireflies show and reward yourself with a delicious seafood dinner before the boat trip (Optional)

Optional Tours are available (With Seafood Dinner, Eagle Feeding and Blue Tears Tour)
